Soliciting electric railway business through house to house canvass and newspaper advertising is the novel method used for the first time, it is said, by a company in Sedalia, Mo.

"Motresses" is what the women "motorists" of Glasgow are called. Fewer accidents have occurred on the electric tramways since the women have learned to run the cars.

RELIGION

IN TO BE INJECTED INTO CAMPAIGN BY MEANS OF FILM, 'TIS ASSERTED—PRESIDENT TO BE SHOWN ASLEEP AT HIS DESK

After Scene Is Depleted of Attack on Nuns—By Villistas, New York Paper Says—"Horror" Said To Have Been Staged at Sheephead Bay.

New York, September 18—The World today will present the following story to its readers:

Religion is to be injected into the political campaign by the Republican National Committee within the next week, according to present plans through instrumentally a moving picture based on a scenario written by Hal Reid and produced by Mr. Reid, assisted by Everett Colby, former Progressive State Senator, of New Jersey, and now an active member of the Republican National Campaign Committee.

The film will be turned over to the Republican National Committee today by Mr. Reid, will be distributed throughout the country by the National Committee, the picture to be displayed under the auspices of, or by arrangement with, the various Republican state committees.

In addition to bringing a religious issue into the campaign the picture, of which Mr. Reid is very proud, and which Mr. Colby asserts is "a corker," constitutes an attack upon the President of the United States unique in conception and amazing in its development.

Nuns Depleted in Flight

One of the chief scenes of this photoplay shows a group of Catholic nuns, fleeing in terror from a band of Villistas before a convent in Mexico. They are overtaken, seized by the Mexican bandits and dragged into the underground screaming and protesting.

Instantly there is flashed in the scene a picture showing President Woodrow Wilson, at his desk in Washington, his head resting on his arm asleep.

This is but one of the so-called "historical scenes" which Reid's photoplay shows. There are many others, the historical accuracy of which might be questioned. It is in this scene, however, that the religious question is brought prominently to the fore, through in a subtle manner.

That this is not mere accident or a case of overzeal on the part of the photoplaywright, would seem to be clearly indicated by another campaign incident of the last week.

Women Aid Committee

The Hughes Alliance, a subsidiary to the Republican National Committee, having offices in the building, as the committee, at No. 611 Fifth avenue, has as its honorary Chairman, Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., Miss Alice Carpenter is the Chairman, and among the women connected with the organization are Mrs. William R. Wilcox, Miss Anne Morgan, Mrs. Glen H. Hooker, Mrs. E. Tiffany Dyer and Mrs. James B. Reynolds. The musicians "Grouper Chairman" is Mrs. Noble McConnell.

There has come into possession of the World a circular letter sent out from the alliance headquarters last Monday, signed by Mrs. McConnell. It is addressed "Dear Madam," and reads in part:

"Do you know what the election of Charles Evans Hughes means to this country? It means, first of all, protection to our people, particularly in Mexico. Stop to think a minute of the horrors perpetrated there, while Mr. Wilson does the watchful waiting act, the diplomatic letter act and all the other disgusting acts, while we sit sleepless and appalled at the atrocities taking place there.

"And when you think of the outrages committed in the convents, no matter what your belief is, your blood must run cold at the thought of what these women, whose lives are dedicated to Almighty God, suffered and are suffering. One cannot think of this phase of it without being utterly disgusted with the present Administration."

Staging the Horrors

Just a few days before this letter was sent out, possibly when it was being prepared, Reid and his band of "movie" actors, some of them members of the national guard of this state, were staging the "horrors" that "make the blood run cold," Mrs. Hal Reid taking the principal part. But the staging was not done in Mexico. It was done at Sheephead Bay, New York.

Reid is proud of his accomplishment. Nearly all the information the World has obtained regarding the film, was obtained from Mr. Reid himself.

It also was learned that some of Reid's friends, when told of his new photoplay, expressed themselves in substance, as follows:

"I do not believe that I have ever listened to anything that shows such rent rottenness in politics as this idea of the Republican National Committee. It is the most disgusting thing I ever listened to. It constitutes a series of deliberate and studied insults to the nation's Chief Executive."

"I call it watchful waiting," said Reid, when asked about the picture by a reporter for the World. "I think it will go a long way toward beating Mr. Wilson."

"First, I show Villa peering through the bushes. Then there is a subtitle, reading about like this:

"Why didn't President Wilson stop the war in Europe by putting on an embargo on all exports to all European countries alike, except on food-stuffs?"

"Next I show Vera Cruz, a launch filled with American sailors is approaching the wharf, I show a close-up of the Americans in the boat. Then I show the wharf and Mexicans armed standing there. They fire on the boat. I show the officer in the boat, picking up the American flag, riddled with bullet holes.

Shown Asleep Many Times

Reid explained that he played the American Consul himself and demanded an apology from Huerta. In his photoplay Huerta, played by William Cone, of Flatbush, exclaims dramatically "If your Gringo President wants an apology he can come here and get it."

"And then," said Reid, "I show the President asleep at his desk. I show that all through the piece a dozen times or more, the President asleep. I show it after the attack on Columbus and after Carrizal and after the nuns are attacked."

But having gone a little ahead of his story, Reid returned to Vera Cruz incident.

"I next show," he said, "the funeral of the 17 men who were killed there. The funeral took place here, you know. I show the funeral and the President riding in a carriage and I follow that with this line." He he had the effrontery to attend the funeral.

Reid went on to say that he had woven a love story slightly through the "historical incidents." The story was that of a young girl engaged to a young man suddenly ordered to the border. He is killed and she enters the convent.

All "Based on History"

Villa sees her and becomes enamored of her, explained Reid. Villa and his men attack the convent and the sisters run away. "I show the Mexicans pursuing them, catching them and dragging them into the brush, where they are assaulted."

"Is there any authority for that scene?" Reid was asked. He replied: "I have used no incident in this that is not based on history; I have used the incident that Colonel Roosevelt has spoken about and written about many times, and which have never been contradicted. You can't deny history. I have used the very incidents that Mr. Wilson himself referred to in the letter he sent to Carranza."

"Another incident," said Reid, "is the raid on Columbus. This depicts a family of Americans on the porch of a house. There are a father, mother and little children. A Mexican rushes up and shoots the child, who falls dead behind her mother."

"Then again," said Reid, "I show the President asleep at his desk." "What happens to the nun?" Reid was asked.

"Oh!" he replied, "there is a scene in the brush, she has no revolver and so she seizes Villa's and shoots herself."

GERMANS TRY TO FORCE BIG LOAN IN BELGIUM

Washington, September 18—A protest alleging that German military authorities are attempting to force a loan of $200,000,000 from the Belgian banks and that M. Carlier, director of the National Bank of Belgium, had been imprisoned because of his refusal to consent to the proposal, was filed in the State Department today by the Belgian legation. In a statement the legation declared "its advice confirm the information concerning the seizure by the Germans of private capital in Belgian banks and shows at the same time the utter contempt in which the German government holds the international laws and the inviolability of private property."

State Department officials have not indicated that they consider the controversy one in which the United States should intervene.

German sugar manufacturers have offered substantial cash prizes for improvements in harvesting and unloading sugar beets, one that amounts to $2,350 being for the best apparatus and process for drying their leaves and tops.

TOO DANGEROUS TO OVERLOOK

Maysville People Will Do Well to Heed the Warning.

To have good health, the digestion, heart, lungs and kidneys must work perfectly. When there is anything wrong with the digestion, heart or lungs, a very noticeable pain or distress gives prompt warning. Kidney trouble is more easily overlooked, however, and too often gains a long start. But kidney trouble does give early signs, and backache, headache, dizzy spells, rheumatic pains, too frequent, scanty or painful urination should not be neglected. When these warnings appear, use Doan's Kidney Pills, the reliable, successful, strongly recommended kidney remedy. Assist the medicine by taking things easier, reducing the diet and the use of liquors. A severe attack of kidney disease may be avoided. Doan's Kidney Pills have won the grateful praise of Maysville people. Read this Maysville resident's endorsement.

W. F. Lynch, 127 W. Third St., Maysville, says: "My kidneys were weak and the passage of the kidney secretions were scanty and painful. Having used Doan's Kidney Pills before, I again got a box. They quickly restored my kidneys to a normal condition."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Lynch had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

SMALL PUBLISHER MAY GET PLENTY OF PAPER

Washington, September 18—The executive committee of the News Print Manufacturers Association notified the Federal Trade Commission today that it was ready to meet a committee of newspaper publishers to discuss means of regulating distribution of white paper so that small publishers may suffer no injustice and may be relieved of the prospect of suspending publication which many of them are said to face because of the paper shortage.

A suggestion by the trade commission that manufacturing machines now engaged on other grades of paper be transferred temporarily to news print was rejected by the executive committee as impracticable. To a further proposal that factories be operated on Sundays to relieve the shortage the committee replied that efforts to induce labor unions to sanction Sunday operation had failed. The commission will endeavor to secure appointment of a committee of publishers to take up these and other suggestions with the manufacturers.
